

QCS Athletic Program 2018

Program Highlights

- A unique opportunity to nurture the younger athlete, while challenging the returning team members to enhance their knowledge and performance.
- Member of the ACCAC
(Atlantic Coast Christian Athletic Conference)
- Knowledgeable, Christian coaches with the awesome opportunity to train athletes physically, emotionally and spiritually.
- Due to the smaller size, students will have a broader opportunity to play and develop leadership skills.
- Homeschool students in grades 5-12 welcome.

Partnership

We are excited to announce a partnership with Push the Rock and our new Athletic Director, Seth Hogan. This partnership provides greater opportunities for team and club offerings. Please check our web site for updated or current sports and club offerings.

Mission

The Quakertown Christian School athletic Department, in partnership with parents, seeks to develop the God-given abilities of each student-athlete in preparation for successful team experiences. This educational arena will be used "to develop the spiritual part of the athlete so that the Holy Spirit is in control and directing mind and body"

(1 Thessalonians 5:23).
